

Become a Rutgers Master Gardener

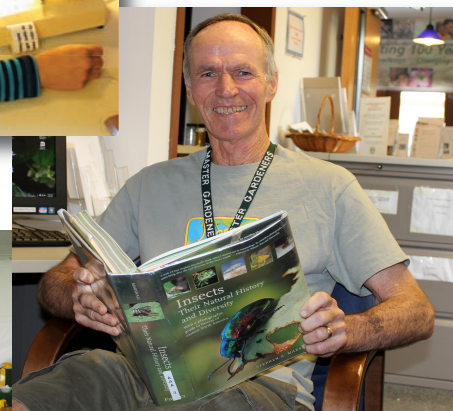

Rutgers Master Gardeners are volunteers who support Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Hunterdon County in its educational mission to provide research-based horticultural information to the public. All Master Gardeners give back to the community by volunteering in a variety of activities

Applications Available for the Master Gardener Class of 2023

Class Schedule

Tuesdays 9:30 am to 12:30 pm,
September 2022-March 2023

- Coursework includes: botany, soils, native plants, lawn care, pruning, landscape design, composting, and more! No horticultural experience needed.
- Volunteer opportunities in garden therapy, gardening, agricultural research, writing, working with youth & much more!
- Enjoy recurring opportunities to learn and engage in our community all year long!

Photos by Jean Agnostinelli and Barbara Berger

REGISTRATION IS EASY!

Request An Application by Phone or Email:

(908) 788-1338

Or

gardeners@co.hunterdon.nj.us

Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Hunterdon County 314 NJ Rte 12, Building #2, Flemington